Come shine your light. Everyone welcome

We are hoping to create an event that will be a reminder of the simple, important things that make a community whole...Love and Light.

Spread love and light wherever you are.

It should be a beautiful sight to see a community joining together to spread love & light. Check out the website below for further details. We want this event to be the beginning of spreading love, kindness and light into our community as a whole.

Join us for a lovely evening.
